RAW IDEA BONDS

The proceeds from these bonds will be used to create a cleaner and more efficient future. Our production methods are both sustainable and efficient, making them the perfect innovation for our modern society. With these funds, we will improve, expand and further optimize our production processes.

Traditional manufacturing methods are outdated and at RAW Idea we believe 3D printing to be the future, both on a small and large scale. In addition to being less harmful to the environment, this production method allows for possibilities in design that were previously impossible to create.

Our bonds not only offer an attractive financial return, but also enables our investors to contribute to a more modern and sustainable world. Your annual return is paid out in two equal instalments every 6 months and amounts to 9% over a 5-year term.
